

Trainer/Presenter Application

Welcome

Thank you for your interest in becoming a trainer or presenter at the 2018 National Women's Martial Arts Federation (NWMAF) Special Training and Self Defense Instructors' Conference.

NWMAF is a non profit organization with a mission to empower women and girls through martial arts, self defense, and healing arts education. Since 1976, we have offered a spectacular training event for people from all over the United States, Canada, and beyond. The Special Training and the Self Defense Instructors' Conference is our flagship event and some of the most effective methods we have for accomplishing our mission. The selection of trainers and presenters, therefore, is an especially crucial task.

To promote the fullest possible participation we seek trainers who are excellent instructors as well as women who embody the spirit of inclusiveness on which the conference is based. We must also be mindful of the special benefits that accrue to trainers and presenters at NWMAF events, and to be sure that those benefits are available to the widest possible range of instructors.

In order to assist us in selecting a well balanced and diverse group of trainers for 2018 we ask that you fill out the application as fully as possible.

The deadline for all applications is February 1st, 2018, with notification of acceptance by March 15, 2018.

About the Trainer/Presenter Information Form

The Trainer/Presenter Information Form collects basic contact information and information about each proposed class including class title, description, and outline. Trainer and presenter teams are compensated as one trainer or presenter, sharing any compensation and/or stipends.

The Self-Defense Model Course is meant to serve as a model for how to offer a basic self-defense workshop to the community, using the NWMAF empowerment framework. Applicants to teach these sessions must commit to teaching or co-teaching at least 4 sessions, and must be NWMAF-certified self-defense instructors.

Please complete the attached form and return it an all requested documents to: events@nwmaf.org.
